Nominations for Excellence in Leadership Awards Extended

(HELENA) - Do you know someone who gone the extra mile to help women succeed in the workplace? The Interagency Committee for Change by Women (ICCW) would like to help you honor that person. ICCW is accepting nominations for the 2009 Excellence in Leadership Awards to recognize Exemplary leaders in Montana.

Established by ICCW in 1999, this statewide award honors three individuals for exemplary leadership and achievements or for outstanding efforts to assist women in the workplace. Awards are presented in three categories: a person in State Government, a person in the public sector and a person in the Private Sector.

The Deadline for the award has been extended to April 17th, so nominations must be postmarked no later than the 17th. The application packet is available on the ICCW website at www.mdt.mt.gov/iccw/.
